Year 12 Homework Timetable 2018-2019

Sixth form students should be given two roughly two hours of homework a week per subject. If there are two teachers then this means each teacher gives one hour a week each. This is the teacher directed work which should go alongside student's independent work.

If students either fall behind, are underachieving or subject teachers feel they are not working independently then staff will be expected to provide appropriate extra homework to enable the child to achieve.
