For the attention of Parents and Carers

Dear Parents and Carers

An excellent start...

I should like to let all of you know that we have had a brilliant first two days at school. We welcomed our Y7 and Y12 pupils yesterday and I was delighted to see the rest of the pupils arriving to join them this morning. We are so pleased to hear young peoples' voices echoing throughout the school and to be together as a staff team once again.

I would like to extend a huge thank you to all of you for engaging with the school and preparing your children so well for the start of a new academic year. The uniform, equipment and attitude of the pupils is exemplary and it is quite clear that parents and carers have worked hard to maintain confidence and resilience in their children over the lockdown period.

We will continue to keep you informed of any changes as they happen. I do know we will face some problems as we move along, but I am confident that the school has a great working relationship with our parents and carers to enable us to support each other through any challenges we may face.

I hope you all have a good weekend.

Kind regards
